While Mrs. R. Wisegar and her three daughters and Loray Hobbs, aged 7 years, were driving on Fourth North street last evening, the horse became frightened and shied into a telegraph pole. Mrs. Winegar was thrown out and received an ugly cut on the head, besides being badly bruised. Her youngrest daughter and the Hobbs child were also thrown out, but were not seriously irjured. After the collision, the horse ran for some distance and was finally stopped by a pedestrian, the other children escaping unnjured. Mrs Winegar was taken to her home in the rear of 28 West North Temple street, in the patrol wagon in an unconscious condition, but Dr. Wilcox soon had her resting comfortably.
